

2017 PHSS Grad Meeting December 5th, 2017

Main point of meeting is to finalize decisions about theme and venue.

Must leave $500.00 for clean-up and $1000.00 for start-up funds for 2018.

Town Taxi is prepared to offer transportation during the after-grad festivities. They will charge $5.00/student.

A need for a grad committee that is manned by only students was voiced. People are in agreement. The committee will meet during lunch hours 2-3 times a month. Mr. Heller has accepted the job of guiding the committee. A meeting will be held this Thursday to solicit student volunteers.

Discussion around grad dinner focused on date of dinner. Students will discuss this further.

The default of staying at the school for the after-grad festivities has been decided.

Key committees: Food, Decoration, Activities/Entertainment

Adult Volunteers:

Decorations: Erin Huddlestan, Maia Haysey, Janice Traverse, Michelle Jensen, Pam Quinton

Food: Karen Tobin, Pam Quinton, Nadine Gough, Terra Taylor, Mabel Knox, Mark Jones

Activities/Entertainment: Michelle Landry, Jamie Keamo,

We will prioritize spending the money on entertainment and activities.

Grads can run the concession at the Curling Club bonspiel on January 7th. Denise MacDonald is the contact person.

We will try to contact the Return-It centre about having a January 5th bottle drive. Brian Heller will look into this.

Two themes (Roaring Twenties or Venice, Italy) have been approved by the parent committee.

Next Meeting will be Monday, January 16th, 2017
